

Symposium on Munition in the Sea – Status and Perspectives

16 September 2026

Musée et Institut océanographique de Monaco

1st Agenda draft

Time	Welcome Session
9:30 – 9:50	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Robert Calcagno, Director General, Oceano, Monaco (tbc) Katja Matthes, Director, GEOMAR Helmholtz Center for Marine Research Kiel, Germany (tbc) Jens Greinert, Senior Researcher, GEOMAR Helmholtz Center for Ocean Research Kiel, Germany
Session 1: The Problem of Munition in the Sea
9:50 – 10:30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The General Problem of Marine Munition Munition in the Mediterranean Sea The Complicated Legal Aspects 	Jens Greinert tba tba
10:30 – 11:00	Coffee and Networking
Session 2: Knowledge gathering and transferring
11:00 – 12:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Munition in the Sea – Project Landscape Using Co-creation to gather information Compiling knowledge and transfer 	Paul Trautendorfer tbd tbd
12:00 – 14:00	Lunch combined with a product session
Session 3: Solutions for Detection, Removal and Disposal
14:00 – 15:30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> State-of-the-art of detection & automation technologies State-of-the-art of removal & disposal technologies State-of-the-art of risks and toxicity 	tba tba tba
15:30 – 16:00	Coffee and Networking
16:00 – 16:30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Session 3 continued 	tba
Session 4: What next and the EU way forward
16:30 – 17:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Which EU initiatives and bilateral initiatives exist? Preview to the Mediterranean/ Atlantic Workshop 	tba - EU Jennifer Yen
Closing session
17:00 – 17:15	Lessons learned, far well	Jens Greinert