

Forum: New Rules, New Risks, New Opportunities? – Secure Data Exchange in International Scientific Cooperation Using China as a Case Study

Date: Thursday, June 5, 2025. Location: GEOMAR Helmholtz Centre for Ocean Research Kiel, Wischhofstr. 1-3, Building 5, Conference Room 5-1.213/4

10:00 Registration

10:15 Welcome and Opening Remarks

Moderation: Jana Brokate (ChiKoN) and Yannick Ringot (HNC³)

- Prof. Dr. med. Joachim Thiery, Dean Faculty of Medicine CAU Kiel
- Sören Lorenz, CIO and Head of Ocean Research Technology Centre GEOMAR
- Prof. Dr. Angelika Messner, Director China Centre CAU Kiel

10:35 Policy Shifts in China: Implications for Germany's Research Sector

- Dr. Thorben Pelzer, Sinologist, China Centre CAU Kiel

11:00 International Data Transfer under Chinese Law

- Dr. Florian Kessler, Managing Partner, WZR China

12:00 Data and Information Security in Research Cooperation with China

- Frank Rinkens, CISO, Forschungszentrum Jülich

13:00 Lunch and Networking

14:00 Panel Discussion

“From Cancer Research to Space Missions: International Scientific Collaboration in Practice”

- Prof. Dr. Eric Achterberg, Research Group Leader WG Marine Chemistry, GEOMAR
- Christoph Bruch, Referent, Helmholtz Open Science Office
- Prof. Dr. rer. nat. Ulf Kahlert, Director Department of Molecular and Experimental Surgery, University Hospital Magdeburg
- Dr. Maria Riedner, Technology Platform Mass Spectrometry, UHH / UKE
- Prof. Dr. Robert Wimmer-Schweingruber, Institute for Experimental and Applied Physics, CAU Kiel

15:00 Coffee Break

15:30 Workshops: Case Studies

17:00 Closing Session and Outlook

17:30 End of the Event
